Dear Friend of Halifax River Audubon,

Maybe you have joined us for field trips...or have been enchanted by a presenter at one of our programs, or at a community event. Perhaps you have spent at the day traversing Volusia County tallying for the annual Christmas Bird Count. Maybe you first learned about birds while attending "Birding 101" or picked up some tips along the trail with an experienced guide. Have you joined us when we have stood up for birds and conservation? Have you sought our advice about the birds around us? What is that bird doing? Should I feed them? How can I provide the habitat in my yard that will best attract and support birds?

Halifax River Audubon has been a part of our community for 100 years educating, advocating and even "edutaining" in the name of birds and conservation. We hope you can join us for this very special evening where we will look at our past while drawing inspiration for our future. The Cici and Hyatt Brown Museum of Art is a perfect backdrop for the festivities. Come dressy, comfortable casual and be prepared for a couple of incredible surprises! Respond soon...seating is limited!
